Computer Technician / Programmer

By Ariel
Why you chose the career you did

• I chose this career because I am very good at dealing with computer hardware.
• Also because I like it and enjoy it.
Describe the career (this should be the main part of your project)

- As a computer systems technician, you will support an organization's network software, hardware, and operating systems.
- You will be responsible for monitoring the system's overall performance, catching errors the moment they occur, and providing solutions as quickly as possible.
Describe the career (this should be the main part of your project)

• *Education: to be a computer technician/programmer you need a bachelors degree in information systems, computer science or computer engineering.

• *Salary: the average salary of a computer technician/programmer ranges between $55,260-$86,034.
How the career relates to science

• As a computer technician you are dealing with computers how they work, how to fix them, and how to develop new software and hardware for the computers.

• Technology is science
What you have learned by researching the career

• How much money I can make
• What I need to study
• That I can work for a big organizations
• That I can work independently for different clients
Additional Facts and Pictures
Sources

• www.collegechoices.com
• www.study.com
• www.computercareers.org
• www.glassdoor.com
• www.intellect.edu