The Grand Canyon

By Joaquín M
Introduction

The Grand Canyon is a national park located in Arizona. The Grand Canyon is also considered “A National Wonder” the rock layers record billions of years of history and they also hide many species of rocks in them aswell.
Who discovered The Grand Canyon?

Francisco Vásquez de Coronado

The Very first Europeans discovered The Grand Canyon in September 1540.
Facts about The Grand Canyon

The Grand Canyon is 277 miles.

At its widest point the Grand Canyon stretches 18 miles.

At its narrowest point it stretches 4 miles 6.4 kilometres across.
What activities can I do in The Grand Canyon?

Well there is a ton of stuff to do in The Grand Canyon! There is a hike called Bright Angel Trail, you can visit a waterfall called Havasu Falls, you can go on the Navajo Bridge and there is so much more to do!
Why is the grand canyon famous?

The grand canyon is famous for its “Natural Wonder” feeling when you take a glance at the copper ores and see them reflect off of the sun followed by the deep holes and oddly weird shapes.
Which side of the Grand Canyon is the best?

The Grand Canyon south rim is the best to visit and it's also recommended for people with children and youngsters because there is a lot more for them to do than just sit around all day!
How much does it cost?

An average trip to The Grand Canyon is about $1,823 because of hotels, entry fee, gas, food, etc.
Can you view it without spending money?

You can try but there is really no way of doing that because there is always an entry fee to see The Grand Canyon.
What wild animals are in The Grand Canyon?

sheep, mule, deer, mountain lions, coyotes, gray fox, and a large variety of reptiles, birds and rodents.
How old is The Grand Canyon?

Studies have shown that The Grand Canyon is 70 million years old!
Is The Grand Canyon one of The Seven Wonders of the world?

The Grand Canyon is considered one of the seven wonders of the world because of it vast rocks and beautiful sunsets and sunrises.
Conclusion

In conclusion The Grand Canyon is a beautiful place to visit and it has 70 million years of history tied to it and it has vast places to visit and so many animals to see and stay away from, but also you have so much stuff to do in The Grand Canyon like go to the Bright Angel Trail, you can visit a waterfall called Havasu Falls, you can go on the Navajo Bridge and so much more!