

Character Analysis: Monkey King

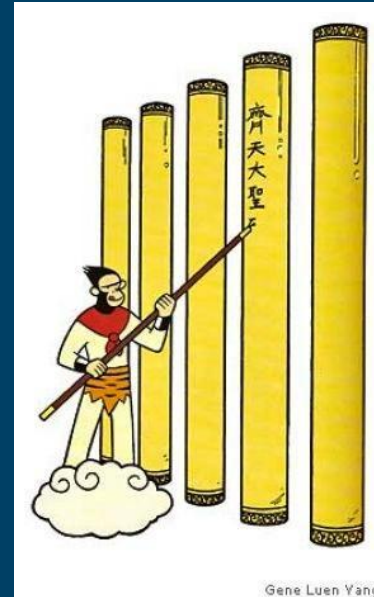

Ryan C
4/8/2020
English 10

Character Background

- He wants to be god
- He is ambitious
- He is determined

Include picture

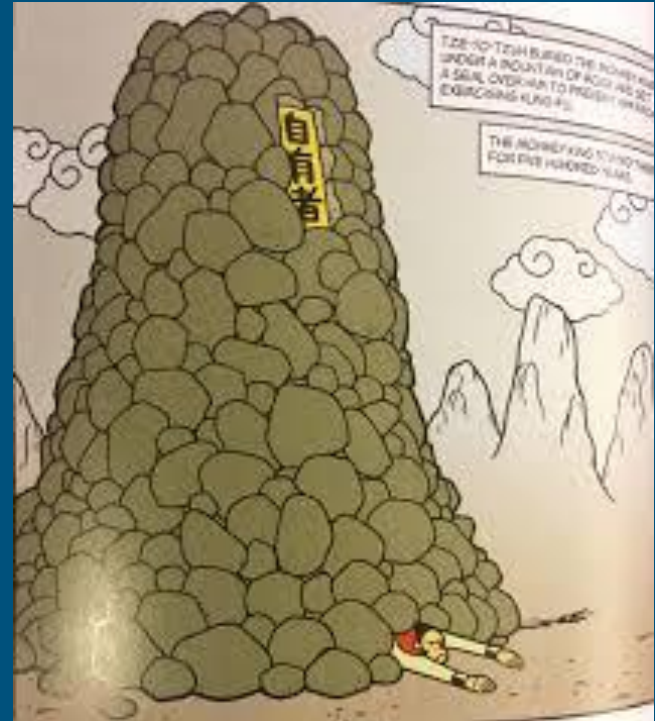

Internals

Mental: stubborn

Spiritual: superior to others

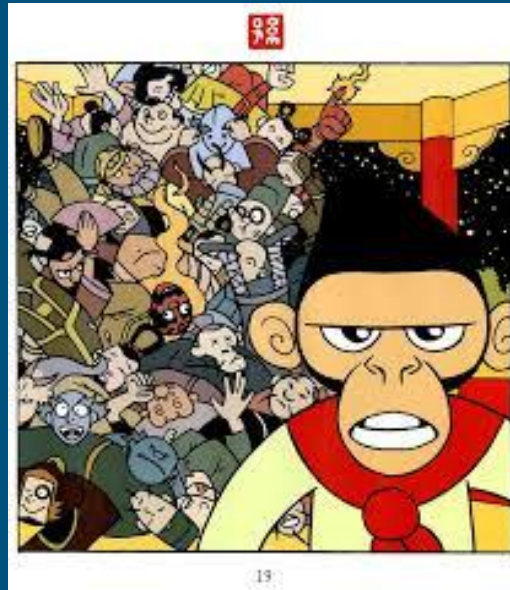

Emotional: angry and explosive

Externals

Dress

- unique
- Monk clothes

Movement

- fast
- bounce

Externals

Posture: he tries to act intimidating

So he puffs up his chest and stands straight up.

Mannerisms: he tries to hide his true self by making costumes.

Personal Thoughts

I think the monkey king is a little mean and stubborn so he is not that likeable. people could relate to him as not being too friendly and wanting to be the best. he is important because almost all the characters in the book wanted to change but in the end he just wanted to be himself.

Resources

American born chinese

Google images