Uluru

By Ariel
Introduction

• Uluru is a rock that is in the middle of the outback in Australia (a.k.a Australia’s middle of nowhere). Uluru is a symbolic landmark of the outback.
Fact #1

- Uluru is also known as Ayers rock.
Fact #2

- The rock is a holy place where the Anangu tribe of aboriginal people who have been in the area for over 10,000 years.
Fact #3

- Some of Uluru’s mass is underground.
Fact #4

• All around Uluru is eroded valleys and ridges with little to no vegetation.
Fact #5

- Uluru is located 450km (280 mi) away from Alice springs in the middle of the Australian outback
Fact #6

• Uluru is considered to be one of the greatest natural wonders in the world.
Fact #7

• Uluru is made entirely out of sandstone.
Fact #8

• There is plant and animal life on Uluru.
Fact #9

- It is one of the most iconic attractions in Australia.
Fact #10

• Around 50,000 people visit Uluru every year.
Conclusion

• In conclusion Uluru is very important landmark in Australia. Uluru is what makes the outback famous.